

TO THE K I N G S

Most Excellent

M A J E S T Y.

The Humble addresse of the Lords, Knights, and Gentlemen, of the six Counties of South-VVales, and County of Monmouth.

PRESENTED TO, AND MOST GRATIOUSLY RECEIV'D BY, HIS

M A J E S T Y,

The 16. of June 1 6 6 0.

E your Majestie's most Loyal Subjects, do, in all humilitie and thankfulness to the Divine Providence, acknowledge the goodnesse of God, aswell in the many miraculous deliverances of your Sacred Majesty, from the practises of men incomparably wicked; as in restoring us, at length, to the fruition of our hopes, even the breath of our nostrils, as Your Sacred Majesty, once our Prince, and now our Deare and Dread Sovereign Lord and King, VVhom God long preserve!

In the next place, We may not, without the highest ingratitude, forget to acknowledge the great Immunities and gracious Favours conferred upon our Nation by your Royal Grandfather, and the Glorious Saint and Martyr, Your Father, of ever blessed memory; our grateful sense whereof, we shall testifie by the effusion and expence of our dearest Blood and Fortunes, when your Majestie's Interest and Service shall require it. And, as we have had the honour to trace your Majestie's foot-steps in your afflictions (according to our proportions); So, to testifie our obedience to your Majestie's Commands, and our submission to the Divine Will, we resolve and declare, that we will imitate what you have most lively copied out from your Great Masters Original, your incomparable Charity; and unite our selves, under your Majestie's Protection and Government, with those who differ'd most from us; so far as they shall studie to preserve the spirit of Obedience in the bond of Peace. Yet because we cannot but with horror and detestation, look back upon the satall Actors in that bloody Tragedy of your Father's death, and the lamentable Devastations and Sacriledges perpetrated upon the, once most glorious and Antient, Brittain Church; So we cannot but be highly satisfied, when we observe, that as your Majesty hath referred the vindication of the former, to the wisdom of your Parliament; so we hope for a speedy restitution of the latter to her Primitive Splendor, as to Doctrine and Government, according to the known Laws of England.

We shall now conclude with a double Petition, First to God, That he would be pleased to receive your Sacred Majesty into his especial care and protection: Next, to your Majesty; That you would accept of this our humble Adresse; Pardon the deficiencies of it, and receive us into you Majestie's Protection, and gracious Favour, as we have and shall esponse your Interest above all other Concernments.
